D. The Parties further wish to describe their respective rights and liabilities that may arise as a result of this relationship.

E. The Parties acknowledge and agree that in case of future disagreements or disputes between them, they intend that the distribution of any property that either or both of them own shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement and, insofar as the statutory or case law permits, intend that any statutes that may apply to them, either by virtue of Federal or State legislation, will not apply to them.

F. The Parties acknowledge that they have been provided with a reasonable period of time to review this Agreement prior to signing.

G. The Parties also acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to retain their own lawyers to obtain independent legal advice regarding the terms of this Agreement.

H. The Parties have disclosed to their satisfaction all assets and liabilities that each may have and voluntarily and expressly waive any rights to further disclosure of property or financial obligations of each other beyond the disclosure that has already been provided.

I. Each Party agrees and affirms the following:

4. Each Party shall have the right, at all times, to dispose of or encumber any or all of their separate property by deed, sale, gift, trust, will, mortgage, lien, or any other form of encumbrance without limitation, merely upon their own individual signature or act without the necessity of action or consent by the other Party.
